

Public POST- Openings to Serve on the GRCDC Board of Directors

The Grand Rapids Child Discovery Center (GRCDC) Board of Directors is looking for 1-3 new Board Members to join our team. This is a volunteer position for a term of three years.

The GRCDC Board supports school leadership, provides guidance on budget, facilities, personnel, communication, fundraising and other important matters. We are looking for school and community members who have an interest in serving on a public-school board and can bring experience from a variety of backgrounds. Please reach out to the Board of Directors board@childdiscoverycenter.org or any current Board Member for more information or to express interest.

We welcome you to join us at the next GRCDC Board meeting listed below. Please be prepared to introduce yourself and provide information about your background and interests. A letter of intent and resume will be required to submit your application.
